Jinjoo Cho

violin

Jinjoo Cho, violin, is the First Prize winner of the first Buenos Aires International Violin Competition (2010), the Montréal International Musical Competition (2006) and the Stulberg International String Competition (2005). She has served as an Artist-in-Residence at the Kentucky Center for Performing Arts, and has regularly appeared in recital in Cleveland, Montréal, Seoul, Munich, New York and South America. Miss Cho has appeared as soloist with world renowned orchestras such as l'Orchestre de Chambre I Musici de Montréal, Québec and Montréal Symphony Orchestras, the Seoul Philharmonic Orchestra, Aspen Concert Orchestra, the Kalamazoo Symphony, Louisville Orchestra, CityMusic Cleveland and The Cleveland Orchestra, collaborating with artists Robert McDuffie, Michael Stern, Peter Oundjian, Kent Nagano, Steven Smith, James Gaffigan and Anton Nel. A native of Seoul, South Korea, Jinjoo is a graduate of Yewon Art School, Korean National University of Arts (Pre-College), and attended the Curtis Institute of Music. She earned a Bachelor's degree at the Cleveland Institute of Music (2011) and is currently working on a Master's degree at CIM with Paul Kantor, her teacher and mentor since 2001.

Natsumi Shibagaki

piano

Natsumi Shibagaki, piano, a native of Japan, is a collaborative pianist currently making her home in Cleveland, Ohio. Ms. Shibagaki moved to the United States when she was 18 to attend the Interlochen Arts Academy in Traverse City, Michigan. She received both Bachelor and Master of Music degrees in solo piano performance from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, as a student of Mack McCray. She has participated in numerous competitions and international music festivals since arriving in the States. After graduating, she worked as a professional accompanist in the bay area of San Francisco. Natsumi moved to Cleveland in 2011 to pursue a 'professional studies' diploma in collaborative piano at the Cleveland Institute of Music with Anita Pontremoli.

CLEVELAND INSTITUTE OF MUSIC

This evening's performance by Jinjoo Cho and Natsumi Shibagaki is a special arrangement with 'Community Programs' of the Cleveland Institute of Music (CIM), Christine Haff Paluck, director. CIM thanks Cuyahoga County residents for their support, through a generous grant from Cuyahoga Arts & Culture.
