About the Artists

Alexander Malikov

piano

Alexander Malikov performed extensively around Canada and the United States. In March 2012, he was featured on "Performance Today" at American Public Media. He has been a frequent visitor to the National Arts Center in Ottawa, and worked with Michael Tilson Thomas and members the New World Symphony on both the modern piano and the fortepiano. Alexander has completed his Bachelor of Piano Performance at the Oberlin Conservatory with the Canadian pianist Angela Cheng, and his masters with Julian Martin at the Juilliard School. Currently, he is pursuing Artist Diploma at the Cleveland Institute of Music with Sergei Babayan.

Rachael Shapiro

Rachael Shapiro began her musical studies at the age of seven, and is currently a student of Peter Takacs at the Oberlin Conservatory. An avid chamber musician, she was chosen to perform at Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall through the New York Youth Symphony Chamber Program, and at the Oberlin-in-Oakton recital series. She has played in masterclasses for Gilbert Kalish, Ani Kavafian, Richard Goode, Rachel Barton Pine, and the Jupiter and Chiara String Quartets. An impassioned believer of music as a fundraising technique, Rachael has given annual recitals for the past six years to raise money for organizations like the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, the Crohns & Colitis Foundation, the Lustgarten Foundation for pancreatic cancer, and others. She has raised more than $20,000 total for charity through her benefit recitals. After graduating Oberlin Conservatory in May, Rachael will be working as a research analyst at Third Bridge Inc., a financial market research firm in New York, NY.

Laura Spector

Laura Spector was born in Dallas, Texas to a family of professional musicians. She began playing at the age of 3, and has performed at venues around the world. Laura is the winner of the International Chopin Youth Competition, as well as prize winner at the Viardo International Piano Competition. Notable performances have included Beethoven's 3rd concerto with the Ashdod Symphony and Rachmaninoff's 2nd concerto with the Bolshoi Orchestra in Moscow, Russia. Laura is currently a fourth year Politics and Piano Performance double degree student at Oberlin college.
